

LA RAZA LAWYERS ASSOCIATION – CENTRAL VALLEY CHAPTER HON. MARIO G. OLMOS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

May 10, 2022

Attn: Director of Financial Aid and/or President/Chair of La Raza Students Association:

Accompanying this letter is the Hon. Mario G. Olmos Memorial Scholarship Application. Since 1980, La Raza Lawyers Association of Fresno (LRLA) has awarded scholarships to deserving law students who have demonstrated academic achievement, leadership ability, involvement in the Latino community, financial need, and ties to California's Central Valley. Subsequently, beginning in 1991, LRLA has awarded these scholarships in memory of the Honorable Superior Court Judge Mario G. Olmos, a Fresno County jurist and respected community leader who was tragically killed in an automobile accident in 1990 at the age of 43. Judge Olmos epitomized the ideals of honor, courage, leadership, and public service through his achievements as a student, volunteer, lawyer, and judge. We will announce the names of the 2022 scholarship recipients at an annual banquet or as determined by our Executive Committee.

We are excited to announce that this year's banquet will be held at Pardini's in Fresno on Friday, October 21, 2022.

LRLA scholarship recipients are expected to be present at the banquet to receive their awards. Each recipient and one guest will receive complimentary entry into the annual banquet. Photographs and short biographies of the recipients will also be included in the banquet program.

Please distribute and/or post this letter and attached application as soon as possible because completed applications must be received on or before September 9, 2022 at 5pm. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact LRLA Secretary, Marco Aguiar at maaguiar@fresnocountyca.gov.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation and assistance.

Sincerely,

Mary A. Vasquez
Olmos Scholarship Committee
